SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

As a new graduate, I have a solid knowledge of computer science concepts and related coursework. I am highly motivated and consistently demonstrate strong communication skills with my coworkers. Additionally, I excel at time management, enabling me to complete work efficiently. Through my experience working as a freelancer, I have developed a diverse skillset in full-stack development, UI/UX design, and front-end development using the MERN stack and ReactJS. This experience has equipped me with the ability to effectively communicate with clients and apply skills related to my academic studies.
